

Keeping Children Safe

Here are some resources freely available to help keep your children safe.

Please view them first to judge whether you think it appropriate for your child/children.

The NSPCC is a brilliant website which has lots of information to help your child/ren stay safe online and day to day.

www.nspcc.org.uk

This is an informing yet fun clip for you to discuss with your child/ren.

www.nspcc.org.uk/pants

This is a great source for parents- this informs parents on how to help their child/ren keep safe online.

<https://www.nspcc.org.uk/preventing-abuse/keeping-children-safe/online-safety/>

There is also a website called the Lucy Faithfull Foundation which is the UK's only children's charity dedicated to preventing child sexual abuse. This could be useful for parents with child/ren in upper KS2. (Year 5 and 6.)

<http://parentsprotect.co.uk/resources.htm>

Another good source is the Thinkuknow website.

This site offers a guide to internet safety when using blogs, chatting online gaming etc...

<https://www.thinkuknow.co.uk/>

Another option is Kidsmart. This offers advice about how to stay safe on the internet and whilst surfing on the internet. It helps guide your child/ren to make good decisions.

www.kidsmart.org.uk/

The staff at Chalfont Valley value the safety of your child/ren. We hold weekly Safeguarding Assemblies and regular training sessions to ensure the whole staff are aware of the latest Government Initiatives.

We are a very pro-active and hope this information will help you keep your children safe too. Our goal is to work in partnership with yourselves to keep your child/ren safe.

If you have any questions please do not hesitate to talk to Jess Costelloe, Ray Preston or Lara Parrott.